Essay Writing

Essay writing is a process and a product. You need to focus on the process in order to achieve a high quality product.

What is an essay?

The word 'essay' originally meant 'to test' or 'try out'. The academic essay, however, now has the more usual meaning of a short piece of analytical writing on a given subject.

Why write essays?

Essay writing is an essential part of the learning process. It involves:

- time management – meeting the deadline for the essay
- gathering information – appropriate resources and references
- interpreting and analysing the information
- organising and structuring your thoughts and ideas
- planning what you are going to write
- following a set of writing conventions
- communicating those thoughts and ideas clearly on paper
- reviewing the marked essay for future improvement

It's a learning curve. Your essay writing style will develop through practice and you will begin to write more clearly, objectively and persuasively. As your writing improves, your assessment grades should reflect that improvement. Finally, being skilled in writing clearly, objectively and persuasively must be an advantage to you for the rest of your life.

Preparation

Start your preparation early. Read the assignment as soon as you can. Devote about 20 minutes to reading it in detail. Write out the full title, don't be tempted to shorten it as this can be misleading. Highlight or underline key words. Display the title so that you can always see it. It acts as a reminder and it will keep you focused on the question. Keep everything you need together. Before writing, make sure you know the word limit, use A4 paper and re-read the question.
